

Upcoming Events:

July 7, 2022 Guild meeting

6:00 pm only, Ron Weears
Park

August 6, 2022 Guild meeting

Theresa Ward-presenting String Quilts

Miami County Quilter's Guild Newsletter

Volume 46, Edition 7

August 2022

Miami County Quilt Guild July 2022

The Miami County Quilt Guild met for their July meeting July 7, 2022 at the Ron Weears park in Louisburg, Kansas. President Cee Kueser opened the meeting at 6pm with the following quote "There are no mistakes in quilting, only new patterns." Approximately 25 members were present with one guest, Grace Young, our scholarship recipient. Zoom options turned out to not be optional due to an uncharged tablet.

Members were asked for corrections or additions for the June minutes. Diane Burnett made a motion to accept minutes with no corrections. Marilyn Chandler seconded the motion and membership approved.

Officer Reports:

Correspondence: Thank you note from family of Karen Brown for the memorial.

Treasurer's Report; Sue Pierce presented the treasurer's report. There was $252.59 income and $937.74 expenses during the past month resulting in $11,647.64 in the checking account and $4,153.83 in the money market. Cindy Wilbur made a motion to accept the report. Ben Havelka seconded the motion and members voted to accept.

Membership No new information.

Programs: Theresa Ward will present a program in August on String Quilts. The workshop she plans to present on Saturday August 6 currently has 5 people signed up. More needed to attend in order to have the workshop.

Committee Reports

Block of the month: Marilyn Chandler revealed the block for August, "Last in the Pool".

Quilt show: Kathy Havelka provided the updates. Form is available to submit info on quilts you plan to have in the show. The evening meeting in September will be the last time to submit. T-shirts for the show were shown, black and gray options. Costs are minimal and forms can be submitted with payment through the morning meeting in September. Please bring the items you want in the silent auction to the September meeting for voting. Quilts are needed for "bed turning" at the show. Quilts need an "interesting story"

Birthdays

8/1 Brenda Craig

8/3 Kathleen Fife

8/3 Mary Seibert

8/4 Margaret Baldwin

8/9 Teresa Bauer

8/9 Sonja Cototta

8/14 Terry Vogts

8/14 Nancy Hart-

Kline

8/18 Verna Garrett

8/20 terri Weis

8/30 Mary Ann Thornton

8/31 Ben Havelka

and Cindy Wilbur will help you with the story if needed. Lonnie Vopat outlined plans to display quilts in store fronts around the square prior to the show. 10-12 quilts needed both large and small. If someone wants to sell their displayed quilt/ post a price, the money will go to the guild.

Unfinished business:

Election of officers

Day President: Regina York

2nd Vice President/Programs: Days Helen Kennon, Evening Cindy Toburen

Day Secretary: Pam Pearson

Treasurer: Cee Kueser

Historian: Brandi Winkler

Jackie McLean made the motion to accept the slate of officers. Second by Laura Davids followed by a vote of membership to accept the slate.

New Business

Miami County Fair: Laura explained the new online process for submitting quilts for show at the fair. Volunteers needed for check in, and hanging quilts. Several volunteered, if interested, contact Jerri Hefling. All quilts will be covered with plastic purchased by the guild in the past. There was much discussion and education about the various "ribbons" awarded. Nancy Hart-Kline made the motion that the guild provide the ribbon for the one category not covered by the fair board, Best of Show. Cindy Wilbur seconded the motion and membership voted in favor. Jerri and Karen Kiss will work together on securing that ribbon.

Fall Retreat Applications are ready for the fall retreat, October 8-10. Due to changes in the billing at the retreat site, those attending the retreat need to get $100. to Karen Ulanski-Swank by July 15.

Birthdays: A list of July birthdays were read and fat quarters available. Cee revealed that she is celebrating turning 70! Hoorah!

Drawing winners

Name Tag- Nancy H-K

Door Prize- Debra Dameron

Food Pantry- Ben Havelka

BOM- Ginger Vail

Announcements- Grace Young, the scholarship recipient, reviewed her plans for study and residence at K-State/

Adjournment- Motion to adjourn by Laura Davids and second from Regina York. Membership voted in favor.

Show and Tell- Nancy H-K showed several quilts prepared for the Ukraine project.

Program; Six entries were displayed for the Challenge highlighting Trips and Travels. The entries along with the submitted stories were reviewed by all in attendance and voted on.

First place ($50.) to Cindy Wilbur for Grand Canyon National Park

Second place ($30.) to Laura Davids for Paradise Found

Third place was a tie (splitting $20) Branda Jenkins for Cruise Memory and Kathy Scott for A New Life.

Quilts on display at Paola
Library:

Contact Kelly Stewart

2022

August-volunteer needed

Sept-Jackie McLean

Oct-Joyce Geiger

Nov-Cindy Toburen

Dec-Connie Epp

Cee Kueser and Nancy H-K also had entries and voting was very close.

Respectfully Submitted,
Debra Dameron, Secretary

2022 Officers

Presidents Cee Kueser (day) and Laura Davids (evening)

1st VP Membership Diane Burnett and Jackie McLean

2nd VP Programs Teresa Bauer and Robin Berrey

Treasurer Sue Pierce

Secretary Debra Dameron and Nancy Hart-Kline

Historian Cindy Toburen

Quilts on display at the Extension Office

Contact: Jerri Hefling

