A Modern Bee quote

“My sewing and quilting time is my “me time”. It’s the time that I spend where I turn off everything else and really just let myself create, which is a wonderful feeling”.

January 2020 Minutes

The January meeting of the Miami County Quilt Guild was called to order by Ruthe Goff on January 2, 2020, at 10:10am and 6:40pm. There were 48 in attendance in the morning and 27 in the evening with 3 new members and 1 visitor. Meeting was opened with a quote from “A Modern Bee” by Lindsay Connor.

Ruth Evans is having health problems. Please follow her facebook for details. She also has a baby quilt she would like someone to hand quilt. Loree Gardner sustained a broken hand and arm plus a mangled leg from helping to load a bull into a stock trailer. Diane Jennerick, Kathy Armstong and Dorothy Schneider are back from surgeries and illnesses. Jane Drugg is now driving. Patti Walters will be having a tumor removed from her leg. Jackie McLean’s granddaughter was in an accident and in Children’s Mercy Hospital. Tricia Culbertson has a new grandbaby. Cindy Toburen’s brother-in-law passed. Chad Meyer’s father passed. Connie Epp related a story of a friend’s kidney transplant that affected several people. January birthdays and new members were recognized. Cee Kueser moved to approve the December minutes, seconded by Marilyn Gray. Evening motion was made by Tricia Culbertson and seconded by Ginger Vail. Motion passed. Marilyn Chandler reported that dues must be paid by the February meeting in order to be in the directory. All pictures in the directory will be new.

Brenda Mosley handed out a survey of various subjects for programs. Brenda will be meeting with Elizabeth Stoops to work on programs. An anonymous donation of $280 was made for programs.

Nancy Hart-Kline reported the first beginning quilting class will be January 18th. Mentors are needed. Class starts at 9:00am but need to be there earlier to set up machines.

Audit and budget committees are needed. Audit committee will be Cee Kueser, Barb Brown, Christy Bing and Marilyn Chandler. If you are a chair of a committee, let Barb Brown know how much you think you will be needing this year. Barb Brown reported a balance of $20,141.14 with $15,998.03 in checking and $4,143.09 in the money market. Motion to accept the treasurer report was made by Elaine Elliot in the morning with Virginia Adams seconding. Evening motion was made by Jackie McLean and seconded by Laura Davids. Motion passed.

A thank you letter was received from Agape Christian Center food pantry in Louisburg. A Christmas card was received from Chad Meyer. Jackie McLean read a thank you letter from Children's Mercy Hospital for the surgery caps. Pat Noel reported over 400 placemats were handed out last year and more have been requested for this year. Please make placemats 2 sided so they are multi-seasonal. Pillowcases and table runners are also needed.

Ruthe Goff and Kathy Havelka will be the chairs for the local quilt show. If interested in being on the committee, please let them know.

A motion was made by Cee Kueser that the guild continues participation in the Kansas City Regional Quilt Fest during the morning meeting. Nancy Hart-Kline seconded. Evening motion was made by Jackie McLean and seconded by Debra Dameron. After discussion, motion passed.

Jeri Hefling passed around a sign-up sheet for the quilt display at the extension office. Kelly Stewart needs quilts for April, June and December at the library. Suggestion was made to look up "Joy of Finishing Rita's Quilt."

Diane Cook announced this year's challenge will be "what is old is new again." Items are to be made out of old items from drawers or closets.
