MQQG Dec. 7, 2023 Minutes

Approximately 40 gathered for our annual Holiday Potluck.

Updates: Heather Christie is due with baby boy in March; Michelle Kueser is a grandma, Michelle Pixler's son Cody is finally able to walk again after cancer and surgery; Shelli Ramsdell's partner, Fred, was recently diagnosed with late stage cancer and is battling it; Shasta Reynolds (former member) had surgery to remove several cancerous tumors in her brain and will start further treatment soon.

Minutes from Nov. were approved with a motion from Marilyn Barbour-Grey and second by Jackie McLean.

Treasurer's report: Cee Kueser reported that our rent for Paola Com. Center will stay the same next yr and that the total in the bank (all accts) is $18, 619.53. The report accepted with motion by Joyce Geiger and 2 nd by Connie Epp.

Program: Jan. program will be Teresa and David Duwe presenting a trunk show. Feb. program is for all members to bring an Unfinished Project (UFO) to share and plan to finish in time for the Sept. show.

Ginger Vail reports giving out 2 disaster quilts recently, in addition to one in Sept.

Joyce Geiger asked for signup for Paola Libraray display (max. 47-48" width) and Jerri Hefling asked for signup for the Extension Center (large quilts fine). Both need hanging sleeves.

Beginner classes start Jan. 13 (9-2ish). Terri Couture reports a full class with a couple on wait list and asked members to come to classes to mentor. Classes will be fore 6 weeks (Sat.).
