November 2020 Minutes

Following the presentation of the guest speaker, Diane Harris with the program "Jingle All the Way" via zoom, Ruthe Goff called the November 5, 2020, meetings to order at 11:05 am and 7:31 pm. The meeting was opened with "a good friend like an old quilt is both a treasurer and a comfort." There were 25-28 members on zoom in the morning session and 24 in the evening.

Member update-Cee Kueser's father has passed. Cindy Forsberg's mother passed. Darla Larson's husband had a knee injury and required surgery. Heather Christy is expecting a baby. Ruthe Goff has a new granddaughter. Kat Fife's daughter is expecting. Verna Garrett's father passed, a week short of his 100th birthday. Cheryl Sigel is back to walking after surgery. Annalee Nelson is under the weather. Nancy Hart-Kline's husband is doing treatments. There has not been any updates on Ruth Evans. Her address is in the directory is you would like to send a card. Ruth's husband could also use some support.

The November birthdays were recognized.

Cindy Wilbur moved to approve the October minutes during the morning session with Connie Epp seconding. The evening motion was made by Nancy Hart-Kline and seconded by Jackie McLean.

A new member has been invited by Darla Larson and Vicki Bledsoe, Sonja Colitta of Bucyrus, Kansas. A potential member has been invited by Terry Skelton, Patricia West. Ruthe has sent the newsletter and zoom invitations to both.

The Board and committee chairs after a zoom meeting on October 29th are recommending to not make a 2021 directory but instead to provide an updated list. Brenda Mosley moved the membership chair put out an addendum for 2021 with new members. Cee Kueser seconded. Sue Pierce made an amendment to the motion that any updates on members would be included. Cee Kueser made an amendment to the motion that the complete file of the membership be emailed to members in both PDF and Excel format. Motion passed. The evening session accepted the morning motion. Motion passed by acclamation.

Please renew your membership for 2021. Send your information and check to Marilyn Chandler. Opportunity tickets will be given out when the guild can meet in person again.

Brenda Mosley stated the deadline for the medallion quilts is in July or August so they can be auctioned at the fall quilt show.

The December, January and February meetings will all be just evening meetings. November 21st and December 5th will be a zoom workshop. The December meeting will be making Christmas stockings to donate to the Head Start program.

Karen Combs will be the January speaker. If there is enough interest there is a possibility of booking a workshop later.

March's program will be a virtual tour of the Tokyo Quilt Show with Patricia Belyea. An in-person workshop will be held on National Quilting Day if possible.

A postcard was received from We Are Sew Crazy stating a store would be coming.

Pat Noel who has served as the community service chair is stepping down. Thank you, Pat for your work. If anyone is interested please let Ruthe Goff know.

Barb Brown reported a balance of $17,486.36 with $13,339.94 in checking and $4,146.42 in the money market. A committee is needed for the 2021 budget. Barb Brown and Sue Pierce will work on the budget and then present it to the committee.

Cee Kueser moved the guild purchase a computer to stay with the treasurer and also be used for programs. The computer must be checked out. Marilyn Chandler seconded. During the evening meeting Nancy Hart-Kline moved for the purchase.

Brenda Mosley second. During discussion the idea of an extended warranty was discussed. Nancy Hart-Kline amended the motion to include a range in price with $1,000 being the maximum. Cee Kueser seconded. Motions passed.

Pat Noel had suggested stuffing the stockings being made for charity. During the evening meeting Nancy Hart-Kline moved that once the stockings are made and delivered back to whomever is delivering them that it is made sure that the items are equal. Brenda Mosley seconded. Cee Kueser amended the motion that the money budgeted for the Christmas party be used for the stocking stuffers. Ruthe Goff seconded, adding there is also money on the Walmart card that could be used. Laura Davids suggested getting a list from Head Start for appropriate items. Masks and Scholastic books were suggested. Laura will check on the books. Motion passed. Cee Kueser indicated she will serve as the zoom tech chair until someone else is found. Duties would include setting up the meetings, sending out invitations, coordinating with the speakers and hosting the meeting. Terry Vogt has purchased cleaning items at Sam's using the Walmart card received as a thank you for making masks. Items are at the guild's meeting place in cupboards in the basement. Keep working on the blocks of the month. Karin McCracken is stepping down. Thank you, Karin, for your work. Anyone interested contact Ruthe. Motion to adjourn was made by Cee Kueser and seconded by Connie Epp. The evening motion was also made by Cee and seconded by Jackie McLean. Meeting adjourned for virtual show and tell.
