February Minutes

The regular meeting of the Miami County Quilt Guild was called to order on February 6, 2020, by Ruthie Goff at 10:00 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. There were 57 members in attendance at the morning meeting and 39 at the evening meeting. The meeting was opened with a reading of the Pickles comic strip from the KC Star.

February birthdays were recognized.

Mary Lou Thornton's husband, Lon, passed away. Verna Garrett will be having surgery for cancer. Patti Walters' surgery has been rescheduled. Jane Drugg will be having corrective surgery.

A motion to approve the minutes was made by Pat Noel and seconded by Virginia Adams during the morning meeting. The evening motion was made by Tricia Culbertson and seconded by Karen Ulanski. Motion passed.

Marilyn Chandler reported the meeting is the last day for dues in order to be in the directory. Karen Kiss will be taking pictures for one last day.

Pins from the 30th anniversary of the guild have been found. An initial idea of selling them for $3 each was presented. Becky Maimer moved to give the pins away. Erma Bauer seconded. Discussion was held. Those who had paid for theirs questioned the motion. Motion failed. Kelly Stewart moved to sell the pins at the reduced rate at the fall quilt show. Cee Kueser seconded the motion. Virginia Adams moved to amend the motion to sell now and at the show. There was discussion that all pins could possibly be sold during the morning session, not leaving any for the evening session. Suggestion was made for those who are interested to put their name in a basket during both meetings and names to be drawn at a later date. Virginia withdrew her motion. Karen Kiss moved for the drawing of names of those interested. Virginia Adams seconded. Motion passed. Motion passed by acclamation at the evening meeting. Brenda Mosley reported the 2020 calendar for speakers and programs is almost filled. The top item from the survey was quilt as you go. March 21st is National Quilt Day. There will be a workshop with Teresa Ward on a mystery quilt. Class is limited to 25. Nancy Hart-Kline will give a slide show at the March meeting of the Houston show.

The beginning quilt class is still going well. Mentors are needed.

The audit is done and came out fine. The proposed budget was done by Regina York, Jeri Hefling, Ruthie Goff, Cee Kueser, Christy Bing, Brenda Mosley, Elizabeth Stoops and Joyce Johnson.

Barb Brown reported $15,522.74 in the checking account and $4,143.62 in the money market for a total of $19,666.36. Sondra Lewis moved to accept the report. Elaine Elliot seconded. Evening motion was made by Elizabeth Stoops and seconded by Laura Davids. Motion passed.

The 2020 budget was presented to the membership. Barb Brown explained the categories of the expense report. Must get a receipt from the print shop for pre-paid printing and give a report to the treasurer. Questions were asked about the need to print tickets, what the guild was subscribing to (The Register) and the price difference of directory printing. Nancy Hart-Kline moved to accept the budget. Kathy Nicholson seconded. Evening motion was made by Suellen Golladay and seconded by Brenda Craig. Motion passed.

Pat Noel is collecting placemats and pillowcases for community service. Drawing was won by Charlotte Bousman.

December 5 9-3 pm

Workshop Sew Day

Holiday Finish Project

Diana Cook showed an example for the July challenge. The idea is to use old linens and repurpose them into another item. Ideas can be found on pinterest.

If information is needed for the April 25-27 quilt retreat, contact Karen Ulanski, Laura Davids or Jeannie Ainsworth.

Kelly Stewart still needs quilts for June to hang at the library. Quilts are also being hung at the extension office.

Diane Burnett is still taking applications for the barn quilt trail. Nancy Hart-Kline and Regina York are waiting for applications for the scholarship.

Tricia Culbertson will be reviewing the by-laws and procedure for errors. Christy Bing will be Christmas chair.

The March meeting will need a nomination committee for the 2021 officers.

Cee Kueser reported Kids Camp will be April 4th. There is a $5 fee per child and must have a chaperone. Camp starts at 9:00. Kids will be doing a jelly roll quilt. If you have a jelly roll you would like to donate, please do so. Partial rolls will be appreciated.

Karin McCracken and Cindy Toburin presented next month's block of the month. Drawing will be for regular and challenge blocks.
